2001 Yearbook Dedication

MR.CAPPUCCI

The Merriam-Webster Dictionary states that to teach is "to instruct by precept, example, or experience." This dedication is to a man who has taught us through his ow knowledge, examples and life experiences. He has utilized material in the classroom to help us build our futures. As he teaches, he displays a strong passion for life and education.

Our recipient graduated from Watertown High School in 1963. From there he attended Burdett College i Boston and then transferred to Curry to major in Business Administration and minor is secondary educatio From November 1967 to January 1968, he student-taught at Waltham High School and in the fall of '68 he w employed as a full time business teacher. Our acceptor went on to Northeastern University Graduate Schoo of Education and also received his Masters Degree in Education there. From 1967 to 1973, he was the Assistant to Training Officer of the U.S. Coastguard Reserve in Norfolk, Virginia. Additionally, he was an Adjun Professor of Accounting for seven years at Bentley College in Waltham. His other endeavors include Real Estate Management, Business Consulting, and Financial Planning. Even with this busy schedule, he is an avid golfer.

Our recipient enjoys a class of active learners. Each class is filled with advice and guidance to help us make the right choices for the future. Whether it is staying after school to help on a project, helping a studen find a college or job, or fighting to get computers integrated into his room, this man will always go the extra mile for his students. In the classroom one would often hear quotes such as "anything for you kids," "it brings tears to my eyes" and even great stories about Joe Battaglio and the C-64s.

You have made our time in school enjoyable and have left us educationally and financially prepared for our lives ahead. By teaching by example and relating the curriculum to our interests, you have truly fulfille the definition of a teacher.

2001 Yearbook Dedication

MRS. MCIVOR

The class of 2001 would like to dedicate this year's Yearbook to a humble, giving woman. She has been teaching for the past nineteen years theWaltham High School, and has been highly respected the entire time. She is a remarkable teacher, and that is why we are recognizing her tonight.

She was born in Detroit, then moved to Grosse Pointe, Michigan. After graduating from Grosse Pointe High School in 1966, she went on to ichigan State University. She graduated in 1970 after majoring in choral education. Then she moved to Boston and began her teaching career at Northeast, ight, and Fitch elementary schools.

In 1971 through 1975, she was at Central Junior High School with her Concert Choir and All-State Boys' Choir. Next, she was at South Junior High hool through 1981. In 1982, she began her teaching career at Waltham High School, and has been here ever since. She started the Jazz Choir, Concert hoir, and all of the Show Choirs. What started as a choir who practiced in their living room, the show choirs now tour all over the world.

In the past nineteen years, show choirs evolved immensely, traveling to Chicago, Washington D.C., Florida, California, Indiana, and New Jersey. n top of all that, show choir also takes part in local community events. She has taught us to realize the importance of every concert, and all the lives we uch.

As seniors involved in the music department, most of us have been in Room 107 for four years. Our respect and admiration for her has only creased since our freshman year. Our teacher and director, whom we hold in very high respect, is a huge reason as to why we love show choir so much.

She is so dedicated to her work, and it shows. She pushes us to do our very best, whether it is for a tough competition or for a community show. is shows the kind of amazing teacher she really is.

As a show choir, we do "go for the gold," but oftentimes we perform for her as well. We perform for her because she is the one that taught us, and is our way of thanking her. She always puts her time, her energy, and a lot of her heart into it, and for that we are very thankful. We appreciate everything at she has done for us. We will all truly miss her.

Our senior class would like to show our appreciation by dedicating the 2001 Mirror to Mrs. Johanna McIvor.

F

Charging the field...

Finishing with an overall record of 8-3, the Waltham Hawks varsity football team had a very sucessful season. The Hawks had tremendous wins over number one ranked Peabody and arch rival Brockton on Thanksgiving. With the win over Peabody, the Hawks were the Greater Boston League champions and had clinched their first Division 1 Super Bowl since 1991. The Hawks suffered a tough loss to Bridgewater-Rhenyam 7-0, but did not dull the glimmer of a great season for the team.

The captains for the Hawks were FB/LB Jon Rock and C/DT Mike Creonte. Key seniors in the success of this season were due in part by Tommy Glynn WR, James Lacrosse WR/DB, Ryan Hogan QB/DE, Ronald Velez DT, Andrew Burns C/DT, Dave Granados LB, Jorge Chacon T/DT, Dan Connors T/DE, Jeff Orifice WR/S, and Mike Quinn TE/DE. Juniors that made major contributions were Kevin Durand RB, Sean Losier WR/LB, Joe LaCava WR/DB, Pat Watson WR/LB, Paul Brissenden G, Dennis Mahoney T, Kevin Crane T, Justin Bowen G, and Brian Dudley TE. Coaches of the Hawks were led by Head Coach Dan Keohane, and the Assistant Head Coach Toranto and Coach Doyle coached the offensive and defensive lineman. Coach Duffy was the defensive coordinator along with coaching the defensive ends, while Coach Logue worked with the quarterbacks and Coach Daceywith the receivers. Coach Annunciata took care of the running backs position and Coach Glynn was with the defensive backs. Andy Doyle was the Hawks Team Manager.

The Hawks major strength throughout the season was its great senior leadership and tough defense. The offense had to fill many positions but improved with leaps and bounds as the season progressed. The Hawks will be back next year with yet another strong team, be sure to watch for juniors Kevin Burke, Matt Morizio, Neil Souza, Ryan White, and sophomores Sean Sullivan, Chris Ward, Tommy Thompson and Keith Levan. ~Ryan Hogan

Showing spirit...

The 2000 Football Cheerleading squad had a very exciting and successful season. Co-captains Nikki Gullotti and Catherine Murphy led this year's team along with seniors Kaitlyn MacPherson, Rachael Schermerhorn, and Coach Amy McCue. Despite the many challenges the team faced throughout the season, they pulled together to finish the season off with a bang and helped lead the boys to a Division One superbowl! WAY TO GO HAWKS!

~Nikki Gullotti

FH Circle the goal...

With three GBL titles under their "kilt", the Waltham Hawks field hockey team started their season with the hopes of winning yet another title. With Coach Nugent always by their side and pushing them to do their best, the team finished up their season undefeated in the league, not to mention beating Bishop Fenwick all three games played. The Hawks overall record 15-2-1 qualified them for the tournament, but unfortunately did not make it as far as they had wanted to. They still, however, had an excellent season.

The Lady Hawks Captains Jackie Driscoll, Liz Kenney, Maria Sorrentino, and Katie Sutherland, led a great varsity team with power and determination. The team had to make a few adjustments in their front line due to the loss of three key players and scorers last year. Senior captain Maria Sorrentino was the lead scorer for the front line. Captain and mid-fielder Jackie Driscoll was the leader of the team with the most scored goals, and took first place in the league for number of goals scored. Senior Liz Kenney and junior Lea Napolitano also contributed with goals of thier own, as well as defending their side of the field. The back line made up of senior captain Katie Sutherland, Katie Hanlon, Cassandra Colocouris, Melinda Hurley, and sophomore goalie, Liz Centofanti was very strong in refusing to let defenders by. Seniors Liz Kenney and Jackie Driscoll, to finish up thier season, made the Best of 60 team, which was quite an honor.

Next year, the Lady Hawks will have to adjust themselves once again, for nine seniors will be leaving the team. Those seniors include; Maria Sorrentino, Liz Kenney, Katie Sutherland, Jackie Driscoll, Katie Hanlon, Molly Kerns, Cassandra Colocouris, Melinda Hurley, and Kathleen Thomas. This season was special for the team. They can all remember Coach Nugent telling them to "sell their souls" and that they not only won another GBL title, but they got to experience that "one moment in time" they had all been waiting for. ~Maria Sorrentino

Wanting the ball...

The Lady Hawks had a tremendous season this fall, breaking the previous school record o 14 wins and finishing with a 15-2-3 record. The girls went undefeated on Nelson field and their only regular season loss was to non-league Chelmsford. The team was led by senior tri-captains Rosalie Cincotta, Carla Lembo, and Monika Shaw. They had a great coaching staff pushing them made up of, John Maguire, Allison Renna, and Brenda Burke. The senior class also consisted of Emily Ryan, Carla Borras, Jen Sullivan, Maria Vasquezi, Lauren Centofanti, Liz Auld, Stephanie Wheaton, and Taylor Nurse. Other key players who were contributors to the Hawks success were juniors, Jena Coletti, Jen Brogan, Erin Condon, sophomores Tricia Auld, Jen Kerns, and freshmen Jane Caporriccio.

At the closing of the season the Girls faced defending GBL champs Arlington for an exciting game that ended in a hard ought 0-0 tie. The team reached its pre-season goal of advancing in the tournament by knocking off Cambridge in the first round with five unanswered goals, after beingdown 2-0. Unfortunately this task could not be repeated in the second round game vs. Andover as the Lady Hawks season came to an end. The success of this year's Lady Hawks was truly evident and they will always be remembered as the 2000 GBL champs. The seniors wish next year's team lots of luck in their 2001 season!

Heading to score..

Boys Soccer had a tremendous season. Finishing at 10-4-5, this was the best performance by the Hawks for the past couple of years. It was the fourth season in a row that they have made the tournament. Coach Marini and captains Mike Dewire, Felix Frimpong, and Christian Gonzales helped lead the Hawks to victory. There was also strong senior leadership with Jorge Renderos, Alex Calderon, Nick DiDuca, Domenic Cedrone, Stephan Bernier, Jair Solis, and Tisapol Raitpong. The juniors that stepped up big were Carlo Fragale, Raul Aparicio, John Barrington, Bryan Hurwitz and Matt Cappetta. This was the best showing in the GBL by the hawks in years, finishing in second place overall. Leading the team in points was forward Jorge Renderos. Next year will be a tough year for the team with only five varsity players remaining. The team will have to step it up next year for them to continue the tradition and win the GBL.

The Lady Hawks Volleyball team, led by senior co-captains Kim Bouris and Michele Ryan, had a very successful season. The team graduated only two seniors last year, so it was not hard to rebuild the team. The team was strong in all areas, both defensively and offensively. Our setters; senior Meghan Conners, senior Michele Ryan, and junior Courtney Smith, put forth great effort and hustle on the court. Our three outside hitters; senior Kim Bouris, senior Sara Walsh, and sophomore Kelly Grimes, were offensive players for the Hawks. The middle hitters senior Amanda Grimes, senior Christina Sullivan and freshmen Likica Grecva helped in the team's success. Senior Eleanor Shirazi and junior Jenna Dallaire, the defensive specialists, were there to cover the team. The other solid key players were seniors Amy Bozak and Cynthia Joseph, and juniors Erika Soucy and Cara Marchese. The seniors will truly miss the team. Dave Murray, an amazing coach, friend and teacher will always be in our mind. No one will ever forget Together Everyone Achieves More, TEAM! The graduating Volleyball players would like to wish the best of luck to the Lady Hawks next year. ~Kim Bouris

X Crossing the line...

The cross country team had a very good season this fall, due to the leadership of senior captain Kelly Vincent, and junior captain, Craig DeMeo. A lot of talented runners graduated, so this year was used as a building year. And there was a great effort from all of the runners this year. The coach of both teams is Kent Hale, and he is admired for his enthusiam and support. Senior, Jean Arneau, was a leader for the boys team as a strong runner. Since only two seniors are graduating from this year's team, they should be very strong next year. Good Luck in the future!

Drive that puck..

The 2000-2001 hockey team had a very successful year, qualifying for the state tournament with a 16-3-1 record. The Hawks lost a heartbreaker in the tournament to the Warriors of Matignon High School. Head coach, John Maguire, along with his new defensive coach, Bob Cusick, led the Hawks through this great season along with the help of their seniors. The defense was led by its three captains, Joe Horgan, Dan Connors, D.J. Aucoin, along with senior Steve Ricci. Seniors Mike Dewire, Dave McCarthy, and Derek Nocera led the offense along with juniors Brian Dudley, Joey Lacava, and Sean Losier. Team M.V.P. Patrick Watson had a great junior season in net for the Hawks. With a strong and experienced group returning, look for the Hawks to have a great season next year.

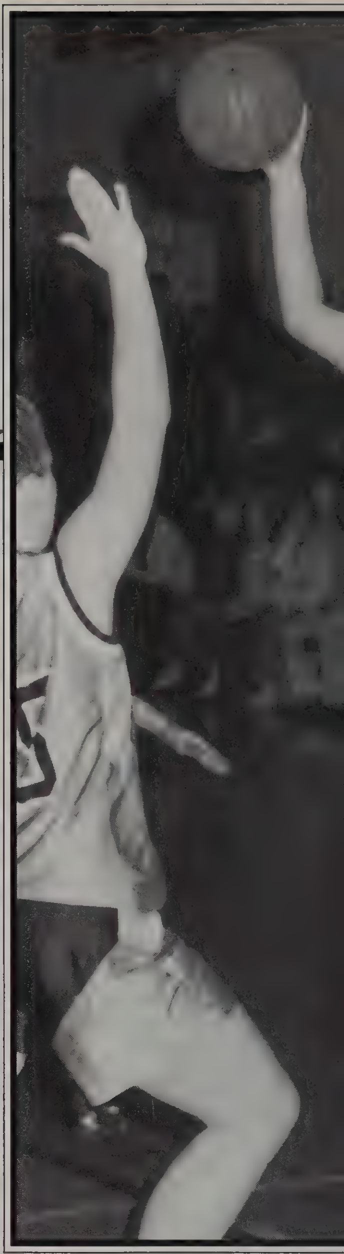
Scoring the points...



The Lady Hawks Basketball Team, coached by Denise Nugen and Brenda Burke, had one of the most successful seasons ever. The Hawks opened the year with a huge win over the GBL powerhouse Cambridge Ringe & Latin. The team continued to win many big games throughout the season, even advancing to the second round of the state tournament. The team was lead by senior co-captains Jackie Driscoll and Emily Ryan. This year the Hawks were able to come together as a team with the strong leadership of seniors Liz Kenny and Tara Sheridan, and the outstanding play of juniors Jen Brogan, Cassie Pelissier, Lea Napolitano and Jena Coletti. Next year's squad will have no problem keeping Waltham at the top of the GBL.

BC Showing some spirit...

The past season of 2000-2001 was a very positive and motivating experience. It was a great time of achievement and inspiration. Our new coach was excellent in organizing our individual talents into a team effort. This was one of the few years which we attended a competition and pushed our abilities to the limit. The captains, Heather Hilton and Mallorie Murray, would like to thank Coach Lauren and the team for all their hard work and dedication. I hope to see the team continue the spirit of Waltham High and promote the sport of cheerleading.

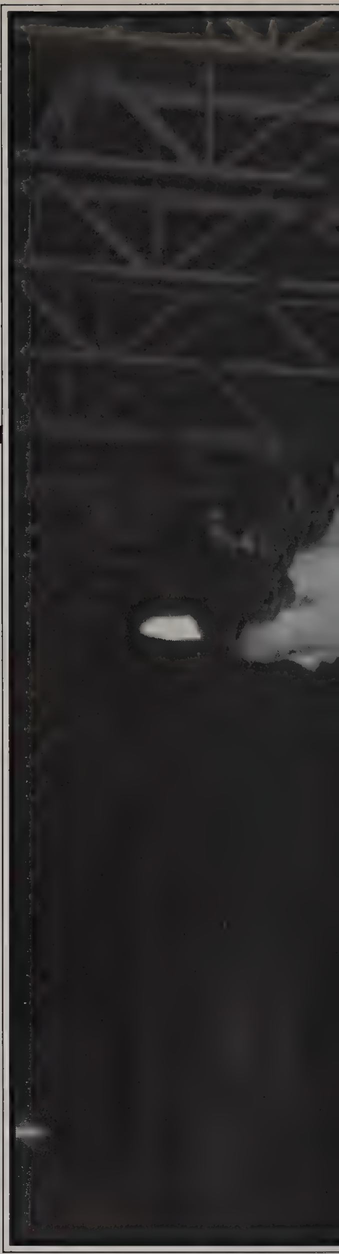
Making waves....



The Swim Team had a tough but competitive season this year. Over the past few years we have lost a number of stronger swimmers. Along wiht that, there was a decrease in the number of male swimmers . However, we pulled through and are rebuilding the team.

Thanks to the new swim coaches, Mr. Gavin and Mr. Goldberg, the team finished third in the GBL wih a record of 6-4. We are graduating five dedicated swimmers this year including captain Erin Fitzpatrick, Sara Burley, Annmarie Muchowski, Andy Doyle, and Nick DiDuca. Despite these losses, we have a lot of strong underclassmen to stand up and fill the gaps. These include Allison Holmes, Ali Smizer, Katie Mills, and Kelly Albanese.

First year senior DiDuca had an unbelievable season, not only in the pool, but also on the deck by contributing his personal speeches that motivated the team. Andy had his best times ever this season and his constant upbeat attitude will always be remembered. Annmarie's hard work and continuing effort paid off with an awesome personal best in her 500 free-style during this season. Sara's humorous attitude kept a positive atmosphere during the season. She swam many different events, including her great times in the 100 Butterfly. Erin strived to do her best in the 50 free-style, despite a shoulder injury, and was able to break the Waltham High School record.

This year's team proved the saying, "There is no I in TEAM," because we pulled together, formed many great friendships and had a very successful season! Let's get R-O-W-D-I-E!!!!!!!

The 2000-2001 Waltham Alpine Ski Team had an incredible season this year. Luckily we had plenty of snow, making our season even more enjoyable. The girls' team was able to win the Mass Bay Ski League title for the fourth consecutive year, qualifying them for the state competition at Berkshire East. The girls had an amazing year. During one amazing race, all eight girls finished in the top twenty. This rarely happens. Katie Connors ca me in first with teammate Jenna Lacava right behind in second.

The boys team also had a very respectable season finishing strong with much hope for the future. Sean McCue had an amazing season finishing in second overall. This year's seniors Jill Caporiccio, Lindsay Coveney, Liz Auld, Megan McDevitt, Stephanie Wheaton, Emma Gabbai, Eric Arsenault and James O'Neil will be greatly missed, but next years team should be very strong. No one on the team will forget Harmone cheering us on, our teams amazing forerunner, our manager (Manny), our intimidating growls (grrrr), and our wild dance parties and sing-alongs on the bus.

Pinning them down...

The 2000-2001 Wrestling Team, marked by impressive individual performances, underwent yet another memorable season. The team as a whole placed numerous wrestlers in every tournament n which it entered, including the prestigious All-State and New England ournaments. Led by Coach Carl Cincotta and senior captains, C.J. nnunciata, Chris Cincotta, and Rich Battaglia, the team was able to aintain an intense level of competition throughout the year.

The results of months of hard work and determination became evident t the end of the season when the Hawks placed four wrestlers in the ectional tournament, C.J. Annunciata(103), Mike Arone(112), Jim acDonald(135), and Chris Cincotta(171). Jim placed fourth at States, ike placed third at States, third at All-States, and fifth at New Englands, nd C.J. highlighted the season by placing first at every tournament until e New England tournament where he placed third.

So far, the team looks good for next year. Juniors Yaw Owusu, and raig Demeo have been working hard to improve, and sophomores John allino, Ralph Bibbo, Mike Arone, Jim MacDonald, and Angel Jiminez will urely surprise some people next year.

Waltham's Lady Hawks Lacrosse team soared to reach new heights in the 2001 season. With only five years' experience as a varsity team, together they achieved goals that were unexpected. Under new head coach, Beth Schaufus, and the leadership of tri-captains Liz Kenney, Kim Bouris, and Carla Borras, the girls were headed for a memorable season. With a record of 7 wins and 8 losses, the Lady Hawks came closer than ever before to a tournament appearance.

The Hawks' zone defense turned many heads this year with Bouris, sophomore Renee Boudreau, and senior Christina Sullivan holding the fort. The talent of junior defensive wings Jenna LaCava and Jena Coletti, and sophomore Jessica Lett brings hope for next season. Offensively, Waltham will miss many seniors including, Stephanie Wheaton, Sara Foley, Jill Caporiccio, Borras, Bouris, and Kenney. Juniors Jen Brogan and Kristin Failla, and sophomores Jenn Kerns and Nicole McMahon will be scoring threats in the years to come.

The highlight of the 2001 season came one Saturday morning when the Lady Hawks were set to face Winchester, a contender for the State title. The girls played the game of their lives. Despite the lack of depth on the bench, the heat, and the loss at the end of 50 minutes, heads were held high, and smiles were across their faces as they walked off the field. There was a 6 goal difference, but it felt like a win. The heart and dedication of the old players and new players, shows the potential of this varsity program. The potential is there, the achievements will come, and you will get there as long as you have fun.

The show's about to start, but don't panic,
Watch out as "She Bangs" into the Titanic.

"Tarzan" and "Lopez" once again were a hit,
Aren't we glad no one fell in the pit.

Fragale's ample bosom put the baby to bed,
But make sure Lori doesn't leave her overfed.

In "Music" we see all the tumbleweeds twirl,
While the ice skating rink awaits the Murphy Girls.

Amy Sullivan is very sexy in "Prince" and "Una Nacho,"
And the shirts the boys are wearing make them look very macho.

Rose and Steve are really beautiful in "This I Promise You,"
In "Dogs Out" make sure Phoebe doesn't poo.

The one day that we don't have your baby here crying,
Monica's is here, let's send the thing flying.

The entire cast needs to be a little more magenta,
While the opening looked as horrible as the baby's placenta.

Fragale finally got her "Bon Bon" to shake right,
While "Saturday NIght Live" looks out of sight.

In "Cup Of Life" Nikki and Becca lead the group,
And at the end, we unite into one troop.

You "Believe" in us and teach us things we never knew,
And your hard work and dedication has made our dreams come true.

In just four years you have shown us all that we can do,
And because of this we know we won't forget you.

Your talent, passion, and patience has given us the chance,
To show the world how much we truly love to dance.

Although the time has come for us to part,
We will always keep the footprints you have left in our heart.

We promise you everything will go alright.
